Re: Lawless v. City of New York et al., 23-cv-09106

Dear Yini:

I write to inform you that Plaintiff in the above-captioned matter hereby accepts Defendants' Rule 68 Offer of Judgment dated August 12, 2024, a copy of which is attached.

I will contact you separately regarding the outstanding claims for attorney's fees and costs to see if we can reach a stipulation that would avoid the need for a formal application to the Court. We will also reach out regarding stipulating to the time necessary for a such discussions, after we enter judgment against the City.

Hope all is well, and I am pleased we are able to move this case closer to a close.

Yours, &c.,

RULE 68
OFFER OF JUDGMENT

23-CV-09106 (VEC)

Pursuant to Rule 68 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, defendants City of New York, Deputy Inspector Daniel G. Magee, Officer Diarmuid O’Sullivan, and any defendant who is currently or subsequently named and hereafter represented by the Office of the Corporation Counsel in this action, hereby offer to allow plaintiff Thorn Lawless to take a judgment against the City of New York in this action for the total sum of Ten Thousand and One ($10,001.00) Dollars, plus reasonable attorneys’ fees, expenses, and costs to the date of this offer for plaintiff’s federal claims.

This judgment shall be in full satisfaction of all federal and state law claims or rights that plaintiff may have to damages, or any other form of relief, arising out of the alleged acts or omissions of defendants or any official, employee, or agent, either past or present, of the City of New York, or any agency thereof, in connection with the facts and circumstances that are the subject of this action.

This offer of judgment may only be accepted by written notice within 14 days after being served.

This offer of judgment is made for the purposes specified in Rule 68 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and is not to be construed as an admission of liability by defendants or any official, employee, or agent of the City of New York, or any agency thereof; nor is it an admission that plaintiff has suffered any damages.

Acceptance of this offer of judgment will act to release and discharge defendants; their successors or assigns; and all past and present officials, employees, representatives, and agents of the City of New York, or any agency thereof, from any and all claims that were or could have been alleged by plaintiff arising out of the facts and circumstances that are the subject of this action.

Acceptance of this offer of judgment also will operate to waive plaintiff's rights to any claim for interest on the amount of the judgment.

Plaintiff Thorn Lawless agrees that payment of Ten Thousand and One ($10,001.00) Dollars within ninety (90) days of the date of acceptance of the offer shall be a reasonable time for such payment, unless plaintiff received medical treatment in connection with the underlying claims in this case for which Medicare has provided, or will provide, payment in full or in part. If plaintiff Thorn Lawless is a Medicare recipient who received medical treatment in connection with the claims in this case, the ninety (90) day period for payment shall start to run from the date plaintiff submits to counsel for defendants a final demand letter from Medicare.

By acceptance of this Rule 68 Offer of Judgment, plaintiff Thorn Lawless agrees to resolve any claim that Medicare may have for reimbursement of conditional payments it has made as secondary payer, and a Medicare Set-Aside Trust shall be created, if required by 42 U.S.C. § 1395y(b) and 42 C.F.R. §§ 411.22 through 411.26. Plaintiff Thorn Lawless further agrees to hold harmless defendants and all past and present officials, employees, representatives and agents of the City of New York, or any agency thereof, regarding any past and/or future Medicare payments, presently known or unknown, made in connection with this matter.

The judgment shall contain and recite the terms and conditions set forth herein.
